First On Deck,
AS USUAL, WITH
New Vermont
Maple Sugar.

As the seasons roll round we make it a point to procure at the earliest possible moment all the desirable specialties in our line.

It is, therefore, our pleasure at this time to be the first to offer

NEW VERMONT MAPLE SUGAR.

We realize that this announcement will occasion some head-shaking, especially on the part of those of our competitors who can't quite "catch on," but we can assure our customers and all others interested that not only is our Maple Sugar fresh, made from the trees in camp this spring, but that it is absolutely pure.

VERMONT MAPLE SUGAR,
All who have seen and examined the character of the goods for themselves readily admit that they are all we claim.

MINOR LOCAL EVENTS.

The Smaller Happenings of a Day in and About the City.

Mal. Talon has applied for trees to plant on the improved lot.

The total mortality for the past week was 112—30 white and 82 colored.

Matthew T. Sever, National Fair Grounds, was yesterday granted a liquor license.

Edward K. Lee has been appointed as an additional private on the Metropolitan police force.

The total increase of receipts from licenses for 1885 up to yesterday over the same period last year was $10,000.

The court in general term yesterday approved the bond of James W. Davis, recently appointed a justice of the peace.

Gen. Ayres yesterday requested Private Henry Newman, of battery B, 3d artillery, to quartermaster sergeant of the regiment.

Frank Higgins was the name of the young man who was rescued from drowning in the Eastern branch Wednesday afternoon by Colleton, with the help of a workhouse employe.

The following were sentenced yesterday morning in the court of Robert Mc Reynolds, unlawful liquor selling: Chas. Miller, sent to county jail, 30 days; William Sullivan, sent to county jail, 30 days.

Henry Clow & Co., of New York, offer the commissioners their services free of charge for the payment of interest on the bonds which will be sold and will allow at the rate of three per cent on all daily balances.

The band of the 3d artillery, stationed at Washington barracks, under the direction of Bandmaster Donovan, has resumed its daily evening concerts, from 7 to 10 p. m., on the award fronting the main guardhouse.

Kate Brien, Margaret O'Connor, and Ellen were charged with peddling oranges and distributing the same at the market, they were discharged on their personal bonds.

Prof. Richard T. Ogden is to deliver his lecture on "Michael Angelo" at the Fifth Street Presbyterian Church, next Monday evening. Prof. Ogden is a scholar of rare literary and scientific attainments, and his lecture will be one of the best of the season.

A fire occurred in the grocery store of White, Bro. & Co., corner of Seventh and I streets, yesterday morning. It originated in the exposed end of a lamp. The loss was $1,000.
The store was insured by the Metropolitan fire company, and the loss was paid.

The police think that the robbery committed on the 8th inst., was committed by John McMillan, John Wilson, and John Brown, who lately escaped from the workhouse. Yesterday three striped suits were found in the woods near the house.

The entertaining programme prepared for this evening's grand ball, commencing at the Metropolitan M. E. Church, corner of Fourth and M streets, for the benefit of a church in London, is a most interesting one.
Some of the most musical talent has been secured, and the good object to be served should make it an additional point of attraction.

"THE WORK WOUNDS."—So does Brown's Iron Bitters, the true tonic and restorer of the human constitution, to the most delicate type. It is not a mere stimulant. It enriches the blood and gives strength to weak constitutions. It removes disorders of the digestive tract, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a true tonic and restorer, and drives out disease.

Mr. R. L. Nickerson, of Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I have been using your Iron Bitters for some time, and it has done me a great deal of good.
I was suffering from a general debility, and my health was very poor. I have now regained my strength, and I am able to do my work as usual. I am very much indebted to you for the good you have done for me."—One dollar a bottle.

Building Improvements.
A fine building is to be erected on the north side of F street, near Eleventh street. It will be five stories in height, with a frontage of 75 feet on F street, running back 90 feet.

The following building permits were granted yesterday: S. S. Dash, to build one two-story brick building on the north side of F street, between I and M streets, to cost $800; Benjamin Murphy, to build one two-story brick building on the north side of F street, between I and M streets, to cost $800; J. E. Engstrom, to build one two-story brick building on the north side of F street, between I and M streets, to cost $1,000; George White, to build one two-story brick building on the north side of F street, between I and M streets, to cost $1,000; J. E. Enstrom, to build one two-story brick building on the north side of F street, between I and M streets, to cost $1,000; J. E. Enstrom, to build one two-story brick building on the streets, to cost $1,000.

Providence vs. National to-day.
The Greenham-Gilman Hotel.
District Attorney Worthington, upon the opening of the criminal court yesterday morning, proceeded to make the closing argument to the jury in the case of Hubbard T. Smith and William H. Ruff, charged with assault on Albert D. Gilman. At the close of the argument and change of the judge the jury returned, and after an absence of two hours presented a verdict of guilty as to Smith, and a half returned with a verdict of guilty as to Smith, on the ground that he provided the cowhide, and not guilty as to Ruff. Judge MacFarland referred to the fact that all the trouble grew out of an insignificant and unimportant insult to a woman. Her effort to resist was laudable, but it was not to be in the law, and sentiment suggested that he should take some steps to satisfy the wrong done. Evidently the defendant's action was actuated by friendship for the lady's escort, still they had done wrong in making the assault. Considering all the circumstances, he should impose a fine of $25. This was immediately paid, and the parties, accompanied by their friends, left the court room.

James Dougherty's Funeral.
The funeral of Mr. James Dougherty took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from St. Anthony's Church. The services being conducted by Father Murphy. The attendance was very large, and the reverend father took occasion to make some very appropriate remarks filled with good sense and feeling. The funeral procession consisted of a pillow and cross sent from the government printing office and a handsome wreath from friends in Alexandria. His remains were carried to Greenwood cemetery. The pallbearers were J.
Simmons, Joseph M. Engstrom, R. F. J.
Drake, George W. Harris, and J. H. O'Brien, of the Columbia Typographical Union, and George A. Appich, of Alexandria.
